

V O L U N T E E R F O R T H E

Little City Book Fair

www.littlecity.org/bookfair

Lend a hand at the annual Little City Book Fair at Harper College on August 19 – 21. The following volunteer opportunities are conducive to individuals and groups of all sizes. Days and shifts are flexible and vary for each opportunity.

- Book Warehouse

Volunteers are needed to sort, price and pack the books before the event on the Little City Palatine campus.

- Book Fair Set-Up

Set-up for the fair begins a week before the event. Collected books will need to be unpacked, sorted, and displayed throughout the gymnasium for the Book Fair.

- Book Fair Event

Volunteers are needed to work the fair as cashiers, re-sorters, guides, and security.

For additional information or to sign up for any of these great volunteer opportunities, contact Kathryn Nelson at (847) 221-7804 or knelson@littlecity.org.

Little City Foundation is a non-profit organization in Palatine, Illinois that assists and empowers children and adults with autism and other intellectual and developmental disabilities. Visit www.littlecity.org for more information.

