

I Need a Loving Family!

This is who I am:

Hi, my name is Daniel!* I am a 17-year-old Caucasian boy.

My Hopes and Dreams:

- One day I hope to go to college and major in criminal justice.
- I am also very interested in learning more about business and being an entrepreneur.

My Likes and Interests:

- You won't catch me inside being a couch potato because I'm always either running around on the basketball court or at the gym lifting weights!
- During the day, I enjoy spending my time at school in a structured environment where I am best able to apply myself.
- I also really enjoy listening to music; pop and hip-hop music are among my favorite genres!

My Skills and Talents:

- If anyone around me is in a bad mood, my sense of humor is sure to make them turn their frown upside-down.
- I am super resourceful; I can easily convert conventional items into different tools to help me complete whatever task my mind is set to!
- I have recently found my own sense of independence; so completing tasks on my own is no problem for me.
- Befriending new people is another thing I do really well; I have many friends whom I enjoy spending time with.

My Challenges and Struggles

- While I am very social person, sometimes I might befriend those who are not very good influences on me.
- I'll always be engaging, however sometimes I struggle to use the right words when expressing my emotions.
- Because I enjoy being independent and helping myself, I don't routinely take the medication I am prescribed

My Family Will Need:

- To be supportive of fostering new, healthy friendships with my peers.
- To be patient and maintain a calm demeanor even if I am yelling and struggling to stay calm.
- An encouraging attitude to keep me focused on school, even when I am feeling unmotivated.
- To model appropriate relationships and closely monitor my peer relationships to make sure I am surrounded by supportive influences.
- To play an active role in supporting contact with my brothers.
